Hello,
I am so excited to be working with your student this year in either World History 1 or Government for English Language Learners. I know it is still early in the year but we are already off to a good start.

I am originally from a small town in western Pennsylvania and graduated from Robert Morris University. This year is my 8th year at Mount Vernon. In addition to teaching history I am also the Assistant Director of Student Activities for Clubs and the Head Track and Field Coach.

World History 1 Honors Curriculum Overview

Course Description: This class focuses on the history of the world from the Paleolithic Era (early humans) to 1500 A.D. in terms of impact on Western Civilization. The study of history rests on knowledge of dates, names, places, events, and ideas. Historical understanding, however, requires students to engage in historical thinking, raise questions, and marshal evidence in support of their answers. Students engaged in historical thinking draw upon chronological thinking, historical comprehension, historical analysis and interpretation, historical research, and decision making. These skills are developed through the study of significant historical substance from the era or society being studied.

A major theme running throughout our year will be “What makes a civilization?” We will study how geography, religion, expression (art), economics, and government all work together to create civilizations and how these aspects have influenced the development of our current civilization.

Procedures and Routines for the Classroom

Below are my expectations for this class. AT ALL TIMES students are expected to:

- RESPECT yourself - advocate for yourself when you need help or support, always do your absolute best, behave in a way that contributes positively to our class community
- RESPECT others - speak with kindness and consideration, support the diversity of our class, do not behave in a way that impedes another's learning
- RESPECT our environment - use classroom and school materials with care, do not touch other people's belongings, leave our learning space as clean or cleaner than when you entered
- RESPECT our mission - attend each class with an open mind and a willing attitude, aim to perform your best on all assignments and assessments, behave in a way that does not impede the learning or safety of those around you.
